2 DEFENDANTS

3 This matter having come before the Court on Motion of Plaintiff to change the dates for the initial
4 disclosures, conference, and joint status report for Good cause, and the Court having considered the
5 records and files herein and the Motion and memorandum and declaration in support of this motion,
6 and no other parties having appeared,

7 FINDS There is good cause to change the subject time schedules.

8 Wherefore it is ORDERED;

9 Requests that dates in the Court's 12/13/19 Order be changed to:

10 Deadline for FRCP 26 (f) Conference: March 30, 2020

11 Initial Disclosures per FRCP 26 (a) (1) April 8, 2020

12 Joint Status Report and Discovery Plan per FRCP 16(f), LCR 26 (f): April 20, 2020.

13 All other parts of the Order shall remain the same.

15 FACTS: This case was filed on November 19, 2019. Dckt 1. Among the numerous defendants, the 16 majority are located in Australia. Requests for waiver per FRCP 4 (d) (3) were mailed November
17 26, 2019. Defendants in Australia have 60 days in which to respond to the request for waiver, and if 18 they waive service they are allowed another 30 days to answer/appear. If the 60 days expire and 19 they must be served, it is estimated that service of process will require 30 days. This time frame
20 takes us to February 26. Once served, defendants have 21 days to answer, (FRCP 12(a) 1), until 21 about March 21. Counsel must confer 21 days prior to the Joint Status Report.

22
23 These time frames are minimal, as the number of defendants and the delays in communications
24 because of distance and time zones are often unavoidable. Thus, the proposed dates are reasonable.
